

WHAT'S DOING IN ARCADIA THESE DAYS INTERESTING LOCAL AFFAIRS

Fred Branion visited Wauchula this week.

W. W. Fulford, of Ft. Ogden is at the point of death.

W. C. Langford returned from a short visit in Georgia Sunday.

W. F. Espenlaub is now busy moving into his new meat market.

Don't forget the nominating convention at the court house Monday night.

Fancy and plain stationery for plain and society correspondence at the Smith Drug Co.

J. N. Hollingsworth left Saturday for Texas where he expects to spend some time visiting.

Toilet Articles. A complete line at Smith Drug Co. Combs, brushes, soaps, perfumes, etc.

Dr. K. H. Smith returned Friday from Jacksonville where he spent a few days this week.

Miss Pearl Stroup, of Ft. Myers, who has been visiting Miss Ida Greene, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. L. Y. Bryan, Gladys and Leslie returned last Friday from a pleasant visit with relatives at Sanford.

E. A. Thomas and family have returned to their home in Nocatee after spending two months at the coast, at Orono.

Mrs. Emory Durrance, Mrs. Henry Wild and Miss Lessie Durrance returned last week from their summer outing in Franklin, Kentucky.

Dave Scott who is spending his first summer in Florida says he is agreeably surprised at the weather. He finds it more comfortable than farther north.

We notice by a Tampa daily that Miss Blanch Campbell, of Arcadia, is receiving pleasant social attentions in Tampa while visiting her relative, Miss Maggie Leigh.

Miss Rosa Lord, an attractive sister of Mrs. L. Y. Bryan came home with the latter from Sanford, and will visit a few weeks in Arcadia, where she has many friends who are glad to welcome her.

Mrs. P. R. Read has been quite ill for the past week but is now mending. As soon as she has sufficiently recovered to travel she will go to the mountains of North Carolina or Tennessee for a season.

S. Rosin informs us that he has lots of good things bought in the Eastern Markets, which will be in a few days. He also tells us that he will make, this fall, his store, The Boston Store, one of the greatest bargain centers in the South.

Mayor W. D. Bell, of Ft. Myers, will move to Tampa in the near future, where he will practice his chosen profession. He is a bright young lawyer, and married one of DeSoto's fairest daughters, formerly Miss Blanche Williams.

Mrs. N. A. Faulkner has taken upon herself the task of collecting the rector's monthly salary from his Arcadia flock. He is sure she will appreciate it if you all step up and pay your assessment without waiting to be asked.

Mr. Dozier, of the Arcadia Mercantile company, has just returned from a month's absence during which time he visited his relatives in west Florida and the northern markets, laying in his fall and winter stock of goods.

The Cottage Hotel will open for business on September first. The reputation this house is too well known to need recommendation. All that is necessary is to let the travel know when they can be accommodated, and the rush begins. Hugh C. Sparkman paid Ft. Meade a visit early this week. Traveling in the same car with him was a young babe, and altho Mr. Sparkman never saw it before it attracted him, doubtless by its likeness to the new one at his own home. Zolfo. Two boys! He says they will be printers! The last one arrived about a month ago.

Our city streets were the cause of an accident yesterday (Wednesday) the horse walked in the wagon track, but the wheels struck a stump throwing Mrs. Espenlaub out. One of her feet caught in the wheel and almost tore the foot from the leg, dislocating the ankle joint. The accident is very painful and will probably keep Mrs. Espenlaub in bed for several months.

The W. H. Seward Store Management is getting ready for the big fall and winter trade that we all expect in Arcadia. The dry goods department is especially attractive, for the fine and moderate priced line of goods handsomely displayed, also because of the essence behind the show case of Miss Annie Davis who will assist Mr. Bennett this line. We expect all the young men to buy their sox of Miss Davis and the ladies will be her customers too.
